The following rules made by the Inspector General of Registration for the Province of Bombay, in exercise of the powers conferred upon him by section 69 of the Indian Registration Act, 1908 (XVI of 1908), and of all other powers enabling him in this behalf having been approved by the Government of Bombay, are hereby published, in supersession of Government Notification in the Revenue Department, No. 1940/24, dated the 30th September 1924, for general information, namely :—

Preliminary.

1. Short title.—These rules shall be called the Bombay Registration Rules, 1946.

2. Definitions.—In these rules, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context—

- (1) "Act" means the Indian Registration Act, 1908.
- (2) "Form" means a form in Schedule C, to these rules.
- (3) "Inspector" means an Inspector of Registration—offices appointed under section 8.
- (4) "Register-books" means books kept under section 51 including additional register books opened under rule 9 and supplements opened under rule 10.
- (5) "Schedule" means a Schedule appended to these rules.
- (6) "Section" means a section of the Act.

II—Certain Sub-Registrars to hold office at out-stations.

3. Sub-Registrar's visits to out-stations.—(1) The Sub-Registrars of the Sub-districts specified in column 1 of Schedule A, shall hold their offices at the out-stations specified in column 2, during the period specified in column 3 of the said Schedule.

(2) The Joint Sub-Registrars of the Sub-districts specified in column 2 of Schedule B in the Districts specified against them in column 1 of the said Schedule shall during the said period hold their offices at the headquarters of the said sub-districts.

III—Languages Recognised.

4. Languages in use in districts.—The languages deemed to be commonly used in each of the following districts shall be, as specified below, namely :—

In the districts of Ahmedabad, Kaira, Broach, the Panch Mahals and Surat—English and Gujarati.

In the district of Bombay—English, Gujarati and Marathi.

In the districts of Kolaba, Ratnagiri, Thana, Ahmednagar, East Khandesh, West Khandesh, Nasik, Poona, Satara, Sholapur and in the Bombay Suburban District—English and Marathi.

In the districts of Belgaum, Kanara, Dharwar and Bijapur—English, Marathi and Kannada.

IV—Territorial Divisions.

5. Territorial divisions for the purposes of section 21.—The territorial divisions recognised for the purposes of sub-section (3) of section 21, shall be,—

(a) within the limits of the ordinary original civil jurisdiction of the High Court of Judicature at Bombay, the registration district and sub-district of Bombay and

(b) elsewhere, the registration district, sub-district, the taluka, and village or township, wherein the immoveable property affected by the document is situated.

V—Office Hours.

6. Office hours on week days and Bazar days.—Registration offices shall be kept open daily (Sundays and holidays excepted) as follows :—

(a) In the City of Bombay and the Bombay Suburban District—

(i) on all week days (except Saturdays) from 10–30 a.m. to 5–30 p.m., with an interval of half an hour for recess ; and

(ii) on Saturdays from 10–30 a.m. to 2 p.m.

(b) Elsewhere in the State—

Between such hours of the day not exceeding seven and half hours on week days and four hours on Saturdays as the Registrar may appoint, or where no such hours are appointed,

(i) on week days except Saturdays, from 10–30 a.m. to 6 p.m. ; and

(ii) on Saturdays from 10–30 a.m. to 2–30 p.m., provided that if at any place a bazar is held on a week day, other than a Saturday and the Sub-Treasury is not kept open, on such week days for the full working hours, the Registrar may direct the Registration Office to be kept open—

(i) on that day as on a Saturday, and

(ii) on a Saturday as on a week day, other than a Saturday.

VI—Holidays.

7. Holidays.—The holidays to be observed in registration offices shall be holidays notified by Government under section 25 of the Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881, as public holidays and such other holidays as are sanctioned for the Revenue Offices of the district in which the registration office is situated.

VII—Books and Forms.

8. Forms of Register-books.—The Register books, Nos. 1 to 5 required to be kept under section 51 shall be in Forms A, B, C, D and E, respectively.

9. Opening of additional Register books for documents prepared on printed or lithographed forms and manner in which copies to be pasted.—(1) Special volumes of Register books Nos. 1, 3 and 4 (hereinafter referred to as the “additional Register books”) may be opened in any registration office where documents prepared on printed or lithographed forms are presented for registration by the parties or are drawn up in the office. The additional Register-books shall be in the form of file books with numbered butts and shall be in the following form, namely :—

Column I.

(Space of binding)	“Serial No. of document” (with notes of erasures, interlineations, blanks or alterations under rule 55).	(Space for pasting printed form).

(2) The copy of each such document with endorsements thereon in the original required for entry in an additional Register-book shall be made by filling in blanks in the spare copy of such document supplied by the parties or by the Department and by copying the endorsements on the spare copy or on a separate sheet of paper, when necessary. Each sheet of such copy shall then be pasted on a separate numbered butt in the appropriate additional Register-book and the registering officer shall write his signature and the date, and shall affix the seal of the office, so that both signature and seal may be partly on each butt, so used and partly on the sheet pasted thereon.

(3) All documents entered in additional Register-books shall be numbered in the same series as documents copied in the ordinary volumes of the Register-books. Whenever any document is transferred from Register-book No. 1, 3 or 4, to the additional Register-book No. 1, 3 or 4, respectively, a brief note indicating the number of the document and the page of the additional Register book at which such document has been pasted shall be inserted in the Register book No. 1, 3 or 4, as the case may be, at the place where the document in question would have been copied but for the transfer.

10. Supplement to Register-book No. 1 and file of copies and translations.—(1) Supplements to Register-book No. 1 shall be kept as follows :—

Part I—(for the purposes of sections 64, 65, 66 and 67) ;

Part II—(for copies of maps or plans mentioned in section 21) ;

Part III—(1) for copies of certificates of sale of immoveable property granted by Civil Courts and Revenue Officers ;

(2) for statement regarding land acquired under the Land Acquisition Act, 1894, received from the Collector.

(2) A separate file shall be kept for filing copies and translations of documents presented under sections 19 and 62. The copies and translations filed in this file shall be connected by cross reference with the entries in the Register-books.

11. File of copies of Tagavi Bonds.—A separate file styled “File of copies of Tagavi Bonds”, shall be opened for filing copies received under sub-section (1) or (3) of section 89.

12. Minute Book and its use.—Every registering officer shall keep a Minute Book in Form F and shall enter therein in his own hand, a short note of every case of suspension or deviation from ordinary procedure of acceptance for, and admission to registration and shall also record therein notes of such other proceedings of cases as may from time to time be prescribed by the Inspector General. Every such note shall be signed and dated by the registering officer :

Provided that a Registrar may delegate to a Sub-Registrar holding his office at his head quarters the duty of writing such note, but shall sign the same himself. Such note shall be necessary—

(a) when a Registrar or Sub-Registrar impounds a document for insufficiency of stamp duty ;

(b) when a Sub-Registrar postpones registration pending receipt of sanction to the levy of fine ;

(c) when a Sub-Registrar refuses registration ;

(d) when a document is received out of office hours or at another place ;

(e) when a summons is issued for enforcing the attendance of the executant or other witnesses ;

(f) when a document is withdrawn.

13. Day Book.—Every registering officer shall keep a Day Book in Form G.

14. Cash-book.—In every registration office there shall be kept a Cash-book in Form H. All fees received in respect of registration, grant of copies and authentication (or attestation) of powers-of-attorney and all other fees, fines and moneys recovered by the registering officer shall be brought to account in the cash-book every day and the registering officer shall sign the same in token of the correctness of the day's total.

15. Register of powers-of-attorney.—Every registering officer shall keep a register of the powers-of-attorney authenticated or attested by him under section 33 in Form I. The entries in this register shall be made for each calendar year.

16. Forms of memoranda under sections 64 to 67.—The memoranda of documents required to be made under sections 64, 65, 66 and 67 shall be in Form J.

17. Manner of certifying and verifying pages of new Register-books and the simultaneous use thereof.—(1) Every officer shall certify under his signature on the title page of every Register-book issued by him the number of pages actually contained in such book as required by sub-section (2) of section 16 and shall also note the date of issue thereon.

(2) Every registering officer on receiving a new Register-book, shall count its pages and satisfy himself that their number tallies with that given in the certificate on the title page. If it so tallies the registering officer shall certify to that effect on the title page and note thereon the date of the certificate. If the number does not so tally, he shall return the Register-book to the issuing officer for rectifying the error. The registering officer shall note on every Register-book received by him the date of its receipt by him under his signature, and shall take out the books for use in order of their receipt :

Provided that when the amount of copying is great, two or more volumes of Register-books Nos. 1, 3 and 4 may be used simultaneously. In such case, the use of the Register-books shall be regulated according to the regulations made by the Inspector General in this behalf.

18. Numbering of volumes of Register-books.—The volumes of each Register-book shall be numbered in a consecutive series which shall not terminate with the year but be carried on perpetually ; and it shall not be necessary to commence a fresh volume of a Register-book at the beginning of a year.

VIII.—Safe Custody of Books, Papers and Documents.

19. Manner of keeping of Register-books and records when not in use.—The office of every Registrar and Sub-Registrar shall be provided with shelves, presses or almirahs, sufficiently large to contain the Register-books and other record. Therein shall be kept, when not required during office hours : all the Register-books and other record, and all papers and documents in the custody of a registering officer other than the documents kept by a Registrar in the fire-proof box supplied to him by Government under sub-section (3) of section 16.

20. Transfer of completed books to central office of record in charge of Head Quarter Sub-Registrar.—(1) Every office of the Registrar shall be a central office of record for the district and the record therein shall be in charge of the Sub-Registrar at the head quarter. Save in the district of Bombay, Register-books Nos. 1 to 4, additional Register-books Nos. 1, 3 and 4—supplements to Register-book No. 1, Parts I to III, the Thumb Print Registers and the files kept under sub-rule (2) of rule 10 that are complete and date back over five years in the offices of the Sub-Registrars shall be transferred to the Central office of record at the commencement of each calendar year.

(2) Completed Minute, Cash and Day Books and the Files of copies of Tagavi Bonds shall be retained by Sub-Registrars in their own offices until they are destroyed in accordance with the rules made under section 3 of the Destruction of Records Act, 1917.

(3) The indexes made in the office of each Sub-Registrar shall be bound and shall be retained in the office to which they belong and shall be transferred to the Central office of record, when the Register-books are transferred to it under sub-rule (1). These indexes shall be kept separate from the indexes made in the office of the Registrar.

(4) In the district of Bombay, all the books referred to in sub-rules (1), (2) and (3) in the office of the Sub-Registrar shall be kept by the Sub-Registrar in his own record room.

(5) This rule shall not apply in the districts or sub-districts specified in a notification issued under sub-section (1) of section 70-C.

IX—Re-copying of Register-books which are in danger of being destroyed or becoming wholly or partially illegible.

21. Direction by Registrar regarding re-copying of damaged Register-books.—A Registrar may, on the report of an Inspector made to him under sub-rule (2) of rule 79 or after personal inspection, by a written order direct under sub-section (5) of section 51 that any particular Register-book or portion thereof which is in danger of being destroyed or becoming wholly or partially illegible shall be re-copied by hand or by photography as he may deem fit :

Provided that where only a portion of an entry is in danger of being destroyed or becoming illegible, the registering officer shall direct that the whole entry including the true copy certificate shall be re-copied.

22. Re-copying and attestation of copies of entries in the new Register-book.—Every entry, which under an order passed under rule 21 is to be re-copied, shall be re-copied in the new register in its entirety along with the true copy certificate and each entry so re-copied shall be carefully compared with the entry in the original Register-book. The registering officer shall then certify under his signature that it is a true copy in the manner laid down in rule 57. A note of the Registrar's order directing the re-copying of the entry shall be made below the true copy certificate so re-copied.

23. Numbering of complete new Register-books and destruction of old Register-books.—When an entire book is re-copied, the new book shall bear the same number as the old one. After the entries in the new book have been compared with the entries in the old book and the new book certified by the registering officer as aforesaid, the old book shall be destroyed and a note about its destruction shall be made in the catalogue of records. Such note shall also show the number of the new book in which the entries from the old book have been re-copied.

24. Manner of assigning serial numbers to the entries copied in new Register-books : Register showing particulars of Register-books partially re-copied, and its preservation : Notes below entries in old Register-books re-copied in new Register-books.—(1) Where only a portion of a book is to be re-copied, the new book in which it is re-copied shall bear a fresh serial number such as 1-A, 2-A, 3-A, 4-A or 5-A, as the case may be.

(2) A register in the following form shall be maintained in which full particulars of the books partially re-copied shall be entered, namely :—

- (a) Serial No.
- (b) Registered Nos. of the entries re-copied.
- (c) Nos. of the pages of the old book the entries of which have been re-copied.
- (d) No. of the old book.
- (e) No. of the new book.
- (f) Nos. of the pages of the new book on which entries have been re-copied.
- (g) Authority under which the entries have been re-copied.

Such register shall be preserved permanently.

(3) A note shall be made in the old book below each original entry which has been re-copied showing the number of the new book and the number of the page of such book in which the entry has been re-copied.

25. Signing and dating of notes.—All notes made under the rules contained in this part shall be signed and dated by the Registering Officer.

26. Repairing of damaged books by use of butter paper.—If, in the opinion of a Registrar any Register-book, which is wholly or partially damaged but the writing on which is clear and legible and which is less than 60 but more than 40 years old can be repaired by using butter paper, he may by an order in writing direct that such book or such portion thereof as he thinks fit shall be so repaired instead of being re-copied as provided in rules 21 and 22.

X.—Fines under sections 25 and 34.

27. Procedure to be followed by Sub-Registrar on an application under section 25 or 34.—When an application for a direction under section 25 or under the proviso to sub-section (1) of section 34 is lodged with a Sub-Registrar, the Sub-Registrar shall, on payment being made to him of the maximum amount of fine imposable by the Registrar under rule 28, at once proceed with the enquiry prescribed in sub-section (3) of section 34 and shall endorse on the document the particulars prescribed in section 58 in the manner shown in Form Q, but the certificate under section 60 shall not be endorsed until the Registrar's direction under section 25 or the proviso to sub-section (1) of section 34 is communicated to the Sub-Registrar :

Provided that—

(1) nothing in this rule shall be deemed to affect the power of a Registrar to refuse such application ;

(2) if such application is refused, or if the amount of fine imposed by the Registrar when making the direction is less than the full amount imposable by him, the amount of fine paid to the Sub-Registrar or the excess, as the case may be, shall be refunded to the party who paid it : provided that when a direction is made under section 25 but the Registrar refuses to direct registration under the proviso to sub-section (1) of section 34 the fine imposed under section 25, shall not be refunded.

28. Scale of fines under section 25 or 34.—Fines imposed under section 25 or 34, shall be of the following amounts, namely :—

(1) If the delay does not exceed one month—not exceeding $2\frac{1}{2}$ times the proper registration fee.

(2) If the delay exceeds one month but does not exceed two months—not exceeding five times the proper registration fee.

(3) If the delay exceeds two months but does not exceed three months—not exceeding $7\frac{1}{2}$ times the proper registration fee.

(4) If the delay exceeds three months but does not exceed four months,—not exceeding ten times the proper registration fee.

Note.—This rule does not affect the Registrar's discretion to impose a smaller fine than the above maximum, under sections 25 and 34 of the Indian Registration Act, in suitable cases.

XI.—Indexes.

29. Language in which Indexes to be prepared.—In the office of a Registrar, Indexes shall be prepared in English ; and in the office of a Sub-Registrar, in the regional language of the sub-district.

30. Forms of Indexes under section 55.—Indexes Nos. I, II, III and IV required to be made under section 55 shall be in forms K, L, M and N, respectively, and Indexes Nos. I-A and II-A shall be in Forms K and L, respectively :

Provided that Indexes Nos. II and II-A in respect of properties brought under a City Survey shall also be kept in Form L (Part II).

31. Manner of preparing Indexes.—In preparing the Indexes, the transliteration table in Schedule D shall be followed. European or American names shall be indexed alphabetically under the initial letter of the surname. Indian names (or foreign names where no fixed surname is used), shall be indexed under the initial letter of the personal name. All prefixes and affixes denoting rank, occupation or caste shall be put into brackets and shall not be taken into consideration for the purpose of preparing indexes in alphabetical order. In the case of an Indian Christian, who has no family name, and who adds his father's name or the name of his village to his own, the names shall be indexed in the same manner as an ordinary Indian name.

32. Manner of indexing documents.—(1) All documents executed by or on behalf of Government shall be indexed under "Government" in English and "Sarkar" in the regional language.

(2) A document executed under the authority of a power-of-attorney shall be indexed in the names of the principal and attorney both, a document executed by a guardian on behalf of a minor in the names of the minor and guardian both, and a document executed by or on behalf of a Company or Corporation in the name of the Company or Corporation as the case may be.

(3) In the case of certificates of Sale, Index No. I shall be prepared in the name of the judgment debtor.

33. Manner of indexing entries of memoranda or copies filed under sections 64 to 67 and 89 (2) and (4).—The index entries of memoranda or copies filed under sections 64, 65, 66, 67 and sub-sections (2) and (4) of section 89 and statements of lands acquired under the Land Acquisition Act, 1894, shall be made in the same indexes and in the same manner as entries concerning documents entered or filed in Register-book No. I.

34. Date of registration to be entered in Indexes.—In entering the date of registration in any of the indexes, the date entered on the certificate of registration under section 60 shall be taken to be the date of registration : Provided that in the case of documents filed in part I or III of the supplement to Register-book No. I or of copies filed under sub-section (1) or (3) of section 89, the date of their filing shall be considered as the date of registration.

35. Manner of preparing different Indexes.—(1) When there are several executants of a deed, a separate entry shall be made under the name of each of them in proper alphabetical place in column 1 of Indexes Nos. I and I-A.

(2) Indexes Nos. II and II-A shall be prepared by villages, one or more separate sheets being assigned to every village. In the case of large towns, separate sheets shall be used for each municipal division, ward, quarter or street. The Registrar shall in his discretion fix the towns in his district which shall be considered large towns for the purposes of this rule.

(3) Where city survey is in force an additional Index No. II shall be prepared in the special card form, namely Part II of Form L, a separate card being used for each city surveyed property.

36. Binding of Index No. III.—In each office of a Registrar and Sub-Registrar Index No. III shall be bound into a separate volume either year by year or, if more convenient, over a number of years together.

37. Manner of filling in columns 5, 6 and 8 of Index No. III.—Columns 5, 6 and 8 of Index No. III in Form M shall not be filled in until it has been ascertained beyond dispute that the testator or donor, to whose will or authority to adopt the index entry relates, is dead. If the fact of such death is not ascertained till after the index in which the entry was made has been sent by the Sub-Registrar to the Registrar, the Sub-Registrar shall immediately forward to the Registrar a statement of the particulars to be inserted in the said columns, and the Registrar shall thereupon cause the said particulars to be duly entered in the Index so sent to him for filing in his office.

38. Manner of preparing Index of Register-book No. 2.—At the end of every year an alphabetical index in Form O shall be prepared at the end of Register-book No. 2 of all the entries in such book.

XII—Procedure of Registration.

39. Hours of accepting documents ordinarily and in cases of emergency.—(1) No document shall be accepted for registration at any registration office on any day on which such office may be open, unless it is presented after the time fixed for its opening, and at least an hour before the time fixed for its closing, under rule 6.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-rule (1) in cases of grave emergency, a registering officer may accept any document for registration at his office, or his private residence, or the private residence of some person other than himself, at any hour on any day. In all such cases, a Sub-Registrar shall at once report to the Registrar to whom he is subordinate the fact of his having accepted a document for registration and the reasons for his doing so.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this sub-rule “day” means a day beginning one hour before sunrise and ending one hour after sunset.

40. Form of presentation endorsement.—(1) The registering officer shall make endorsement as required by section 52, either by writing or impressing it on every document presented to him for registration, in the following form namely :—

“Presented at the office of the $\frac{\text{Registrar}}{\text{Sub-Registrar}}$ of _____ ; between the hours of _____ and _____ on the _____ 19 ____.”

(2) In the City of Bombay, the Sub-Registrar and elsewhere the Registrar may delegate the duty of recording the endorsements under this rule to his Head Clerk and the Sub-Registrar at the headquarter, respectively.

41. Manner of filling in Day Book.—(1) On receipt of a document for registration a registering officer shall fill in the first three columns of the Day Book in Form G and then proceed to recover the proper registration fees payable in respect of the document.

(2) The serial number under which a document is entered in the Day Book shall be endorsed on the document above the endorsement made under rule 40.

42. Manner of calculating copying fees.—In calculating copying fees in the case of documents copied by hand a fraction of a folio shall be counted as a whole folio. When a document is short and the copy of it is likely to occupy less than a page of a Register-book, the whole number of words shall be counted. In other cases the number of folios may be counted by multiplying the average number of words in five different lines in different parts of the document by the number of lines in the document (a fraction of a word being counted as a word) and dividing the result by a hundred :

Provided that the transcription made under rule 53 shall not be taken into account in calculating the copying fees :

Provided further that copying fees in the case of documents copied by photography shall be calculated at the rate charge per page of the document.

43. Form of fee endorsement.—(1) On receipt of the fees, the registering officer shall endorse on the document the following note, namely :—

“ Received fees for—

(2) When fees under any other items specified in Form P are levied, these items shall be noted in manuscript.

44. Prescribing form of receipt to be passed.—(1) A registering officer shall pass a receipt in Form P whenever a document is presented for registration or deposit, or whenever payment of any fee or fine or other amounts is made to him.

(2) A registering officer visiting a private residence or jail under the proviso to section 31, sub-section (3) of section 33 or sub-section (2) of section 38, as the case may be, on being paid his travelling expenses, shall pass a similar receipt.

45. Certain requirements to be verified before accepting a document for registration.—(1) A registering officer shall, before accepting any document for registration, not concern himself with its validity but see that—

(a) it is properly stamped ;

(b) it is presented within the proper time, and in the proper office ;

(c) it is presented by a competent person ;

(d) if it relates to immoveable property, that it is not open to objection under section 21 or 22 ;

(e) if any document is in a language which he does not understand, the provisions of section 19 are complied with ; and

(f) any interlineations, blanks, erasures or alterations appearing in the document are attested by the signature or initials of the person or persons executing the same as required by section 20.

(2) If on presentation of the document, the fees prescribed under section 78 are not paid on demand, the registering officer shall refuse to register the document.

46. Withdrawal when allowed.—A registering officer may, before the order of registration is passed, at the request in writing of the party presenting the document for registration, allow him to withdraw the same.

47. Procedure when a document is not properly stamped.—(1) When a document, which is not duly stamped, is presented for registration and the registering officer impounds it under the Indian Stamp Act, 1899, he shall not forward the document to the Collector until the executant or executants appear before him for the purposes of enquiry under section 34 or until the expiration of the period of four months specified in section 34, whichever is earlier. The endorsements required under rules 40 and 43 and section 58 shall be made on the document before it is sent to the Collector but it shall not be copied or certified as registered until it has been returned to the registering officer with the Collector's certificate that the proper stamp duty has been paid thereon.

(2) If a document is impounded under the Indian Stamp Act, 1899, the registering officer shall write immediately below the endorsement made on it under rule 40 the words and figures " Impounded under section 33 of the Indian Stamp Act, 1899 ", and shall sign the same.

(3) In the City of Bombay, the Sub-Registrar and elsewhere the Registrar may delegate the duty of recording the endorsements made under sub-rule (2) of this rule to his Head Clerk and the Sub-Registrar at the head quarter, respectively.

48. Mode of writing endorsements and certificate when blank space is insufficient.—(1) Every document admitted to registration shall provide a blank space for writing endorsements under sections 52 and 58 and the certificate under section 60. If, in any case, the blank space on a document is insufficient, an extra piece of blank paper shall be firmly gummed on or attached to it, so as not to overlay any of the matter originally written in the document and the registering officer shall make each of the said endorsements and certificate partly on the document itself and partly on the piece of paper so gummed on or attached.

(2) Where an extra piece of paper is stitched to the document, or where a document is written on more pages than one, the registering officer shall affix his seal on each join.

49. Procedure on admission of document to registration.—(1) If a registering officer does not, on the face of it, see any objection to accepting a document for registration he shall proceed with the inquiry under section 34 and if the document is admitted to registration, the endorsements under section 58 and the certificate under section 60 shall be made in the manner shown in Form Q.

(2) The registering officer shall not endorse an admission of receipt of consideration unless the admission is voluntarily made.

(3) If a person executing a document admits that he has executed it, but denies receipt of consideration either in whole or in part, the registering officer shall not refuse to register the document on that account but he shall make a note of such denial in the endorsement.

(4) When a registering officer is acquainted either with the person admitting execution of a document or with the witness to his identity, he shall make a note in the endorsement to that effect. If the registering officer is not acquainted with the executant and no witness with whom the registering officer is acquainted is produced to identify the executant, the registering officer shall either—

(a) examine any two witnesses, produced by the executant to prove his identity ;

(b) examine on oath the executant and one witness produced by the executant to prove his identity.

(5) Where the person appearing before the Registering officer as an executant of a document is in the military employment of Government and is unable to produce any witness or witnesses to identify him or to prove his identity, as the case may be, the registering officer shall, if such person produces his identity card duly certified and bearing his photograph, accept it as sufficient proof of his identity, unless the registering officer has ground to believe that the identity card is not genuine. If the identity card is accepted as such proof, the registering officer shall endorse on the document the number of the identity card and the designation of the authority purporting to have signed and certified it.

50. Class of persons to be preferred for purposes of identification.—For the purpose of satisfying himself as to the identity of the persons appearing before him the registering officer shall prefer witnesses of respectability or well known persons, such as Government officers, or pleaders ordinarily practising in courts within his jurisdiction and shall see that the witnesses are really able to identify the person to be identified.

51. Procedure to be followed by Sub-Registrars, Bombay, for verification of Cadastral Survey numbers, divisions or sub-numbers in documents with the C. T. S. records.—(1) Subject to such instructions as may from time to time be issued by the Inspector General in consultation with the Collector of Bombay, for the safe custody and proper transmission of documents to the City Survey Officer for return thereof to the Sub-Registrar, Bombay, without undue delay and for such other matters, the Sub-Registrar, Bombay, when accepting for registration a document relating to immoveable property situate in the district of Bombay shall, after the order of registration is passed, send the document to the Collector of Bombay for verification of the cadastral survey numbers or divisions named in the document or for consolidation of cadastral survey numbers or giving sub-numbers where necessary.

(2) If any discrepancies are communicated by the Collector the Sub-Registrar, Bombay, shall take steps for requiring the executing parties to make the necessary corrections within a reasonable time. The corrections shall be made in the margin of the document under the signature of the Sub-Registrar, Bombay, after obtaining the consent of the parties or their authorised agents. If such consent is not given within a reasonable time the Sub-Registrar, Bombay, shall index the document under the cadastral survey numbers and divisions named in the document.

52. Optional registration how distinguished from compulsory registration and determination of value of interest when not stated in document.—(1) Entries relating to documents, registration of which is optional, shall be made in Register-Book No. 1 and in Parts I and III of the supplement to Register-Book No. 1 by appending letter "B" to the serial number. The absence of the said letter shall indicate that the entries relate to documents registration of which is compulsory.

(2) For the purposes of determining whether the registration of a document in which the value of the interest affected is not expressed is compulsory or not, the value of the stamp affixed thereto shall be taken to indicate the value of the interest according to the provisions of the law in force relating to stamped documents.

53. Manner of copying stamp vendor's endorsements on Register-Books and copies prepared under sections 64 to 67.—When a document admitted to registration is being copied in the appropriate Register-Book as required by section 52, the value of the stamp and the stamp vendor's endorsement shall be transcribed at the beginning of the copy in such book and also on the copies prepared under sections 64 to 67.

54. Items to be copied in certain columns of Register-Books Nos. 1, 3 and 4.—The following items shall be copied in column 2 of Register-Books Nos. 1 and 4 and in column 3 of Register-Book No. 3, namely :—

(1) the serial number endorsed on the document under rule 41 ;

(2) the presentation endorsement referred to in rule 40 ;

(3) the fee endorsement under rule 43 ;

(4) the endorsements under sections 52, 58 and 59 and certificate under section 60 in the order in which they appear on the document.

55. Manner of noting interlineations, etc., and writing marginal notes.—Any interlineation, blank, erasure or alteration in a document presented for registration and in the endorsements made on it shall be copied into the Register-Book exactly as they appear in the document and in the endorsements. Marginal notes explaining such interlineation, blank, erasure or alteration shall be written in column 1 of the Register-Book concerned, in the following manner, namely :—

(a) in the case of an interlineation or alteration a single mark "X" in red ink shall be made over it and a similar mark "X" in red ink shall be made in column 1 against it and the word "sic" or the corresponding word in the regional language ('asal') shall be written in the said column after such mark ;

(b) in the case of an erasure or blank, two marks "XX", in red ink, one at each end of such erasure or blank shall be made and similar mark shall be made in column 1 against it and the word "erasure" or "blank" as the case may be, or the corresponding word in the regional language of the district shall be written after such marks. All such notes shall be attested by the initials of the registering officer.

(2) The same procedure shall be adopted in the case of copies granted under section 57 or those forwarded under sections 65, 66 and 67.

56. Manner of copying endorsements in case of documents running on more than one page.—If the copy of a document occupies more than one page of a Register-Book, the endorsements on the document shall be copied once only, with the exception of the serial number, which shall be repeated on every page. The endorsements shall in no case be copied alongside of the copy of any document other than that to which they relate. If in the case of any document copies of the endorsements in column 2 of a Register-Book extend lower down than the space occupied by the copy of the document in the column in which the document is copied, the blank space left in the last named column shall be cancelled by cross lines in ink being drawn over it.

57. Comparing and attestation of entries in Register-Books. Endorsements of copying, reading and comparing how to be made. Manner of noting and attesting interlineations etc. Delegation of duty of attesting copies of documents etc., by Registrars and Sub-Registrars, Bombay. True copy certificates on copies from Central office of Record to be signed by Headquarter Sub-Registrar.—(1) When the copy in a Register-Book has been completed, it shall be carefully compared with the original and the copyist, the reader and the comparer shall respectively endorse below the copy the words "copied by me", "read by me" and "compared by me" and shall attach their respective signatures thereto :

Provided that where there is no separate reader and the comparing is done by the Sub-Registrar himself by 'eye method' it shall not be necessary to make the endorsement "read by me".

(2) The registering officer shall then certify under his signature that it is a true copy.

(3) All interlineations, blanks, erasures and alterations made at the time of copying shall be bracketed in red ink, attested by the registering officer on each side, consecutively numbered in red ink, and classified under the categories (1) Interlineations, (2) Blanks, (3) erasures, and (4) alterations.

(4) The form of certificate shall be as in the following example :—
"True Copy".

No. of corrections : 8 (eight) :

(1) and (7) Interlineations ; (2), (3) and (6) blanks ; (4) and (8) erasures ;
(5) alteration. (Initials of the registering officer)*

(Signed) A. B.,
Registering Officer.

* The registering officer shall affix his initials exactly at the point where the true copy certificate ends.

(5) In the City of Bombay the Sub-Registrar and elsewhere the Registrar, may delegate to his Head Clerk and the Sub-Registrar at the headquarter respectively the duty of attesting copies of documents in a Register-Book as well as copies given under section 57 or forwarded under sections 66 and 67. of writing marginal notes and of attesting interlineations, blanks, erasures or alterations under rule 55.

(6) The true copy certificate shall, in the case of copies given under section 57 from the central office of record, be signed by the Sub-Registrar at the headquarter.

58. Procedure in case of re-registration.—In cases of re-registration under section 24, the document shall be copied into a Register-Book in extenso, and shall be given the next serial number :

Provided that a note in red ink indicating the number of the volume of the Register-Book and the page at which it is re-registered, shall be made in the Register-Book on the first copy of the document in column 2 of Register-Book Nos. 1 and 4 and in column 3 of Register-Book No. 3 below the signature of the registering officer, and such note shall be dated and signed by the officer who re-registers the document. The presentation endorsement specified in rule 40 shall be made on representation.

59. Registration in wrong office how set right.—When a Sub-Registrar registers a document relating to immovable property not situate within his own sub-district, but in that of another sub-district, he shall, on noticing the mistake direct the person who presented it to present it again in the proper office.

60. Procedure when document is presented for registration in duplicate. Copies or memos. under sections 64 to 67 of duplicates not to be sent. Indexes of duplicates not to be made. Mode of filing copies of maps or plans accompanying duplicate.—(1) When a document is presented for registration with its duplicate or duplicates, the endorsements required to be made under sections 52, 58 and 59 shall be endorsed on the original as well as on the duplicate or duplicates. Copy of the original document shall be made in the appropriate Register-Book ; the duplicate or duplicates thereof shall not be so copied :

Provided that a note stating the number of duplicates presented along with the original shall be made below the entry of the original in the Register-Book. The contents of a certificate of registration prescribed under section 60 shall be the same for the original, as well as for the duplicate or duplicates.

(2) A copy or memorandum required to be forwarded under sections 64 to 67, shall not be forwarded in respect of the duplicate or duplicates but in respect of the original only. A note of the number of duplicates presented along with the original shall be made below the true copy certificate in the case of a copy, and in the "Remarks" column in the memorandum.

(3) Similarly, indexes shall be prepared only in respect of the original.

(4) If a document is accompanied by a map or plan, the duplicate or duplicates of such document shall each be accompanied by a copy of the map or plan. The copy of the map or plan accompanying the original shall alone be filed in Part II of the Supplement to Register-Book No. 1. There shall be forwarded to a registering officer under sections 65 to 67 copies of maps or plans relating to the original only and not the duplicate or duplicates.

61. Endorsements on copies of maps and plans received under section 21 and below true copies of documents concerned : Endorsements to be signed and dated : Attestation of copies of maps or plans by executant.—(1) On the copy of every map or plan received under section 21, the registering officer shall make the following endorsement, namely :—

“ Copy of map or plan accompanying the document registered at number

The registering officer after entering the copy of the map or plan in Part II of the supplement to Register-Book No. 1 shall make a note in Register-Book No. 1, below the true copy certificate of the document to which it belongs, as follows :—

“ Copy of Map or Plan accompanying is entered at page of volume of Part II of the Supplement to the Register-Book No. 1.”

(2) These endorsements shall be dated and signed by the registering officer.

(3) The copies of maps or plans shall be attested by the signature of the persons executing the document or their authorized agents.

62. English abstract when to be sent by Sub-Registrar, Bombay, to Registrars of other districts along with copy of document.—When under sub-section (2) of section 30, the Sub-Registrar, Bombay, registers a document written in a language other than English and relating to property situated beyond the limits of the State of Bombay, and forwards under section 67 a copy of such document to every Registrar within whose district any part of the property to which the document relates is situated, the copy shall be accompanied by an English abstract of such document which shall be certified under his signature as the true abstract.

63. Return of documents to parties in person and by post.—(1) When, after the registration is complete and the document is returned under section 61, the registering officer shall obtain the signature of the recipient in the Day Book in Form G in acknowledgment of receipt of the document ; the receipt given and produced by the recipient shall then be returned under section 52 to the recipient after the date of the return of the document is endorsed thereon and the endorsement is initialled by the registering officer or the Headquarter Sub-Registrar when the registering officer is a Registrar or by the Head Clerk of the Sub-Registrar in Bombay.

(2) When a person presenting a document for registration signifies a wish that the document should be returned to him by post, receipt given to him under section 52 shall bear an endorsement that the document will be returned by post and such endorsement may be initialled as provided in sub-rule (1). The document shall, when it is returned under section 61, be returned in a registered cover with a form of acknowledgment. The registration receipt granted by the post office and the acknowledgment of the recipient, when received, shall be separately filed and their numbers shall be noted in column 13 the Day Book.

64. Documents which are kept separate. List of unclaimed documents to be hung up. Notice to presenter or his nominee, if any, for unclaimed documents and manner of sending it.—(1) Documents of which registration is not complete and registered documents pending delivery, shall be kept separate.

(2) A list of documents which have been registered, and have remained unclaimed for more than one month from the date of completion of registration, shall be hung to public view in Form R in the office of every registering officer.

(3) If a document remains unclaimed for one calendar month after its registration, or after registration of the same has been refused, the registering officer shall on the day following the last day of such month, issue a notice in Form S to the person who presented the document or his nominee, if any, informing him that if it be not claimed within a further period of one month from the date of the notice, an extra fee at the rates prescribed in the Table of Fees prescribed under section 78 shall be leviable before such document can be delivered to him. Such notices shall be sent by post.

65. Contents of copy of reasons under sections 71 and 76.—The copy of reasons required to be given to an applicant under sections 71 and 76 shall be a copy of the entries in Register-Book No. 2 relating to the document of which registration has been refused.

66. Copy of order passed by Registrar on appeal or application to be sent to Sub-Registrar and manner of copying it in Register-Book No. 2.—A copy of every order passed by a Registrar on appeal or application shall be sent to the Sub-Registrar against whose decision the appeal or application was made, and the substance of the order, with a brief statement of the reasons therefor in case of refusal, shall be copied by the Sub-Registrar in column 5 of the Register-Book No. 2.

XIII—Registration under the Deccan Agriculturists Relief Act, 1879.

67. Special procedure for documents executed under the Deccan Agriculturists Relief Act, 1879.—In respect of the registration of any instrument which has been executed by an agriculturist in accordance with the provisions of section 63A of the Deccan Agriculturists Relief Act, 1879 (hereinafter in this rule referred to as "the said Act") instead of the provisions of rules 27, 28, 38, 45, 49, 58, 62, 65, 66, 73 and 75 the following special provisions shall apply, namely :—

(1) The Sub-Registrar shall duly satisfy himself of the identity of each executant, and shall receive the fee for registration before the instrument is written. He shall also satisfy himself that no agriculturist purporting to be an executant is a lunatic, an idiot or a minor and shall pay careful attention to the requirements of the Indian Stamp Act, 1899, and the rules issued under it.

(2) The Sub-Registrar shall ordinarily draw up the instrument himself, or ask his clerk to draw it up under his superintendence. In drawing up an instrument, the Sub-Registrar shall take care to express fully the intentions of parties, and to avoid repetition and prolixity. The language employed shall be simple and clear, and the description of immovable property, if any, to be mentioned in the instrument, shall be such as to enable the property to be unmistakably identified. When the instrument relates to land to which a survey has been extended, the survey number of such land shall be set forth.

(3) When the instrument has been written, it shall be read out or caused to be read out to all the parties by the Sub-Registrar and shall be executed as provided in section 57 of the said Act.

If a witness is examined as to identity, his signature and place of residence shall be taken in the following form, viz. :—

' I, E. F. of G. H., identify A. B. (Signature or mark of E. F.) '

Below that, the Sub-Registrar shall make the attestation required by paragraph 2 of section 57 of the said Act in the following form :—

“ This instrument written by me (or under my superintendence) after having been read aloud within his hearing, has been executed in my presence, this day by A. B. of C. D., whom I know (or of whose identity I have duly satisfied myself). ”

This endorsement shall be signed and dated by the Sub-Registrar ; the attestation of two respectable witnesses shall immediately follow that of the Sub-Registrar in the following form :—

“ We I. J. of K. L. and M. N. of O. P. have witnessed the execution this day, of this Instrument by A. B. of C. D.

(Signature or mark of I. J. of K. L.)

(Signature or mark of M. N. of O. P.) ”

The Sub-Registrar shall next endorse upon the instrument the note required by paragraph 2 of section 59 of the said Act as to whether or not the transfer of the consideration named therein or of any part thereof took place in his presence. This note shall be in the following form :—

“ A. B. of C. D. has in my presence this day, received from Q. R. of S. T. the sum of Rs. (in figures and words) or the following articles being the whole or part/no portion of the consideration stated in this instrument.”

The endorsement shall be signed by the Sub-Registrar.

(4) It shall be the duty of the Sub-Registrar to enquire whether the instrument about to be executed will modify or wholly or partly supersede any previous instrument ; and if the parties answer in the negative, the following declaration shall be endorsed on the instrument and signed by the claiming party or parties or by his or their authorised agent :—

“ I (or We) hereby declare that this instrument does not modify or wholly or partly supersede any previous transaction or instrument.”

(5) When a previous instrument, which is to be modified (or wholly or partly superseded) by a new instrument, is produced in accordance with the third paragraph of section 59 of the said Act, the Sub-Registrar shall write notes under his own signature in the following manner :—

(a) On the previous instrument which is modified or superseded, the following note :—

“ This instrument has been modified (or wholly or partly superseded) by instrument No. of 19 executed in my presence by A. B. of C. D. in favour of Q. R. of S. T. and attested by me this day.”

(b) On the new instrument which modifies or supersedes the previous instrument, the following note :—

(c) at the top of the instrument,

‘ for list of documents superseded or modified see end ’ ;

(ii) at the bottom of the instrument :—

“ The instrument dated _____ executed by A. B. in favour of Q. R. which this instrument modifies (wholly or partly supersedes) has been produced before me this day, and a note of such modification (supersession) has been endorsed by me thereon ” :

Provided that the writing of such notes shall not dispense with the necessity of a full description of the old instrument being contained in the new one as required by section 59 of the said Act :

Provided further that when it is alleged that any such previous instrument is on the record or otherwise in the custody of a Court, or is lost, or has been destroyed, the Sub-Registrar may, after ascertaining that such previous instrument was duly registered, permit a certified copy thereof to be produced in lieu of the original.

(6) When a certified copy of the previous instrument has been permitted to be produced under the second proviso to the last preceding sub-rule, the following procedure shall be observed, namely :—

(i) The contents of the certified copy shall be fully described in the modifying or superseding instrument and the said copy shall be marked by the Sub-Registrar under his hand for identification with the words ‘ the instrument of which this is a certified copy has been modified (or wholly or partly superseded) by instrument No. _____ of _____ 19 executed in favour of Q. R. of S. T. and attested by me this day ’ and shall then be dated and delivered to the person who produced it.

(ii) If the previous instrument is lost or has been destroyed and the registered entry thereof is in the Sub-Registrar’s custody, he shall endorse on such entry a note under his hand as to the modification or supersession of the said instrument to the following effect :—

‘ The instrument of which this is a copy has been modified (or wholly or partly superseded) by instrument No. _____ dated _____ and executed in my presence by A. B. of C. D. in favour of Q. R. of S. T. ’

(iii) If the previous instrument is in the custody of a Court or if it is lost, or has been destroyed and the registered entry thereof is in the custody of another officer, the Sub-Registrar shall forward a certified copy of the entry in his register relating to the modifying or superseding instrument to such Court or officer, with a report explaining the circumstances after writing an endorsement of the despatch of such copy below the registered entry in column 3 of the Register-book. If the officer be a Sub-Registrar he shall, on receipt of such a report, endorse on the registered entry a note under his hand as to the modification or supersession of the instrument in the form prescribed in clause (ii).

Note I.—The notes made under sub-rule (5) and clauses (ii) and (iii) of sub-rule (6) shall be signed and dated by the Sub-Registrar.

Note II.—(i) In the Sholapur Taluka of the Sholapur District, it shall not be necessary for a person to produce either a certified copy of the destroyed instrument or an extract from the register of suits unless such copy is in such person’s possession.

(ii) In all other talukas of the said district, it shall be sufficient if a person produces, instead of a certified copy of the destroyed instrument, an extract from the register of suits.

(7) All instruments shall ordinarily be drawn up and registered at the office of the Sub-Registrar authorised to prepare the same. But on special cause being shown, such officer may attend at the residence of any person desiring to have any instrument prepared and shall charge an additional fee as laid down in the Table of Fees prescribed under section 78.

(8) If in writing an instrument, it has been found necessary to make any correction in the nature of erasures, interlineations, or otherwise, the same shall be initialled by the Sub-Registrar and clearly noted at the end of the instrument immediately above the signatures of the executants.

(9) An endorsement in the following form shall be substituted for that prescribed by rule 40, namely :—

“ Prepared at the office of the Sub-Registrar of _____ (or at the house of _____
as the case may be) between the hours of _____ and _____ on the _____ 19 ____ .”

(10) The fee endorsement shall be as given in rule 43.

(11) Rule 54 shall be read as if for the second and fourth items therein specified the following were, respectively, substituted, namely :—

“ (2) the presentation endorsement referred to in rule 40 as modified by clause (9) of rule 67 ;

(4) the endorsements made under clauses (3), (4) and (5) of rule 67 and the certificate required by section 60 in the order in which they appear on the instrument.”

XIV—Returns and Accounts.

Note III.—In the case of an instrument of partition the value of the separated share or shares on which stamp duty is leviable shall be deemed to be the amount or value of the property to which such instrument relates.

Note IV.—In the case of leases, the amount, or value of the consideration, on which the ad valorem fee is to be assessed, shall be as follows :—

- | | |
|---|--|
| (1) Where the rent is fixed and no fine or premium is paid or money advanced, then, if the lease is granted— | The fee will be assessed on— |
| (a) For a period less than a year .. | The total sum payable under the lease. |
| (b) For a definite period .. | The average annual rent reserved. |
| (c) For an indefinite period .. | The average annual rent which would be payable for the first ten years if the lease is continued so long. |
| (d) In perpetuity .. | One-fifth of the whole amount of rents which would be payable in respect of the first fifty years of the lease. |
| (2) Where no rent is fixed but the lease is granted in consideration of a fine or premium or money advanced only. | The amount of such fine or premium or money advanced. |
| (3) Where the lease is granted for a fine or premium or money advanced in addition to rent reserved. | The amount of fine or premium or money advanced in addition to the fee which would be payable on such lease if no fine or premium were paid or money advanced. |

N.B. (1).—Where in the districts of Poona, Ahmednagar, Satara North, Satara South, Kolhapur, Sholapur, Nasik, East Khandesh and West Khandesh a lease for agricultural purposes of immoveable property for a year or less drawn up in a standard printed form or prepared on any other printed form, spare copy of which is supplied by parties, is presented for registration, no copying fee shall be charged, and instead of the ad valorem fee a fixed fee of annas two shall be charged for each such lease, irrespective of the amount of rent. Where in the same districts a lease for agricultural purposes of immoveable property for a period exceeding one year drawn up in a standard printed form or prepared on any other printed form, spare copy of which is supplied by parties is presented for registration, an ad valorem fee shall be charged, but no copying fee shall be charged.

The whole of this clause shall cease to have effect from the 1st day of January 1952.

N.B. (2).—If a patta or lease be given to a cultivator and the kabulayat or counterpart of such patta or lease be registered in the same office and on the same day as the patta or lease, the fee chargeable in respect of the two documents shall not be greater than the fee which would have been charged on the lease alone.

Note V.—In case of an instrument executed to secure the payment of an annuity or other sum payable periodically, or where the consideration for a conveyance is an annuity or other sum payable periodically, the amount or value of the consideration on which the ad valorem fee is to be assessed, shall be as follows :—

Where the sum is payable—	The fee will be assessed on—
(a) for a definite period	.. The total amount to be paid during the period.
(b) in perpetuity or for an indefinite time not terminable with any life in being.	The total amount payable during the first twenty years calculated from the date on which the first payment becomes due.
(c) for an indefinite time terminable with any life in being at the date of such instrument or conveyance.	The total amount payable during the first twelve years calculated from the date on which the first payment becomes due.

Note VI.—In the case of service bonds and agreements for the hire of moveable property, the amount or value of the consideration, on which the ad valorem fee is to be assessed, shall be as follows :—

If the service bond or agreement is granted—	The fee will be assessed on—
(1) for a period of a year or less	.. The total amount payable under the service bond or agreement.
(2) for a definite period exceeding one year.	The average annual amount to be paid during the period.
(3) for an indefinite period	.. The average annual amount to be paid during the first ten years.

Note VII.—If in any case the rent, remuneration or hire is payable partly in money and partly in kind, and the money value of the portion payable in kind is not expressed, the fee shall be charged at twice the amount of the ad valorem fee chargeable in respect of the amount payable in money, e. g. : If the ad valorem fee chargeable on the amount payable in money is Rs. 3-12-0 the total fee leviable in respect of the document would be Rs. 3-12-0 on the money value + Rs. 3-12-0 for the payment in kind. And if the rent or remuneration is payable entirely in kind and the money value thereof is not expressed, a fixed fee of Rs. 5 will be charged.

Note VIII.—The fee on any instrument comprising or relating to several distinct matters shall be the aggregate of the fees with which separate instruments, each comprising or relating to one of such matters, would be chargeable.

Note IX.—An instrument so worded as to fall under the category of two or more kinds of documents, shall, when the fees chargeable thereunder are different, be charged with the highest of such fees.

Note X.—(1) In the case of documents purporting or operating to effect a contract for the sale of immoveable property, and

(a) not containing a recital that the possession of the property has been delivered to the person contracting to buy, an ad valorem fee on the amount or value of the purchase money subject to the maximum of Rs. 2-8-0 shall be charged on the document. A document purporting or operating to effect a sale of the said property executed in pursuance of the said contract shall be subject to an ad valorem fee on the amount or value of the purchase-money ;

(b) containing a recital that the possession of the property has been delivered to the person contracting to buy an ad valorem fee on the amount or value of the purchase-money shall be charged on the document. The document purporting or operating to transfer by way of sale the said property executed in pursuance of the said contract shall be treated as a supplementary document and shall be subject to an ad valorem fee on the amount or value of the purchase-money subject to a maximum of Rs. 2-8-0.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in this article, the provisions of clause (1) shall, so far as may be, apply to documents which purport to be or to operate as agreements for the transfer of any right, title or interest in immoveable property, otherwise than by way of sale, and to documents which purport or operate to effect such transfers and are executed in pursuance of such agreements.

Note XI.—No fee shall be payable in respect of the registration of a document relating to immoveable property which has already been registered in a wrong registration office and on which proper fee has been paid under this Article.

Note XII.—No fee shall be payable in respect of the registration of a certificate of transfer granted by a Mamlatdar under sub-section (3) of section 18 of the Bombay Tenancy Act, 1939.

Note XIII.—No fee shall be payable in respect of the registration of a deed of conveyance on sale of any immovable property to the United States Consulate General at Bombay.

Note XIV.—No fee shall be payable in respect of the Trust Deed executed by His Highness the Maharaja Gaekwar of Baroda on 17th August 1950 in favour of the Trustees of the Trust known as "Sir Sayajirao Diamond Jubilee and Memorial Trust."

Note XV.—No registration and copying fees shall be payable in respect of instruments which are conveyances, leases or any other kind of transfers of immoveable property by or in favour of the Government of the United Kingdom.

Note XVI.—No fee shall be payable in respect of the registration of a deed of conveyance on sale to be executed by the Government of India in favour of Captain V. N. Misra in connection with the sale of land measuring 2,750 square yards out of Survey No. 389 of Santa Cruz in the Bombay Suburban District.

Note XVII.—No registration and copying fees shall be payable in respect of the instrument of sale executed on 30th July 1949 by the Chief Engineer, Baroda, on behalf of the former Baroda State Government in favour of the Petlad Mahila Mandal, Petlad.

Note XVIII.—No fee shall be payable in respect of the Trust Deed executed by the Sangli Municipality in pursuance of Government Resolution in the Political and Services Department, No. 2325/46, dated the 12th May 1950.

II. For the registration of a surrender of a lease.—The same fee as for the lease surrendered, if the same does not exceed Rs. 5 otherwise Rs. 5.

III. This article shall apply to documents on which fee shall be calculated according to the ad valorem scale in Article I subject to a certain maximum.

Registration fee, calculated according to the ad valorem scale subject to a maximum of Rs. 5 shall be levied on the following documents :—

Document which acknowledges merely the payment of the consideration for some other document which is also registered ; Document which acknowledges the receipt of the consideration expressed in a previous registered document but not paid at the time of the execution of such document, where full ad valorem fee has, under Article I, been levied in respect of such previous document ; Reconveyances executed on the extinction of mortgage liens ; Releases executed on the extinction of mortgage liens ; Documents acknowledging the receipt of instalments on account of mortgages ; Revocation of Trust or Settlement (see Note I below) ; Duplicate or duplicates presented for registration with the original document or documents on the same day ; Release executed in pursuance of some other document on which full ad valorem fee in Article I has been paid (see Note II below).

Note I.—The revocation of Trust or Settlement mentioned in this article is one executed in pursuance of a power to revoke reserved in the original registered deed of Trust or Settlement and a partial revocation of Trust or Settlement executed otherwise than in pursuance of such power.

Note II.—Release executed in pursuance of another document includes release by trustees in favour of beneficiaries and vice versa, release by settlee in favour of settlors, release by benamidar in favour of real owners and documents of a similar nature.

Note III.—In case of a release the amount or value of the interest or claim released will always be less than the amount or value of the property over which the claim is released. In such cases if the amount or value of the consideration for the release is not shown, the registration fee shall be levied according to the ad valorem scale in Article I but subject to a maximum of Rs. 32.

IV. This article shall apply to documents on which a fixed fee is to be levied.

A fixed registration fee of Rs. 5 shall be levied for the registration of the following documents :—

Power-of-Attorney, Writing of Divorcement, a Certificate of Heirship, Guardianship, Administratorship, or Executorship, a Notice of pendency of a suit or proceeding referred to in section 52 of the Transfer of Property Act, 1882, Revocation of Trust or Settlement (see Note II below), Dissolution of Partnership, Agreement of Pre-emption in a partition deed or in a lease, Appointments of property, Adoption deed, Declaration of Trade Marks, Declaration, Agreement of Easement where amount or value of consideration is not shown, Documents which do not fall within any other article of the Fee Table.

Note I.—Where an ad valorem fee on the property to which such Trust-deed relates has once been paid on the registration of a deed appointing a body of Trustees for the management of any property, and a subsequent deed appointing one or more Trustees in addition to or in place of some of those appointed as above is presented for registration, such subsequent deed shall be liable to the fixed fee of Rs. 5 under this article.

Note II.—The revocation of Trust or Settlement mentioned in this article is one where a previously registered Trust or Settlement is wholly revoked otherwise than in pursuance of a power to revoke reserved in the original deed of Trust or Settlement.
